

Never worry

Never worry about tomorrow, my friend
God will send the rising of the sun,
Do not anguish over past mistakes
That can never be undone.

Never waste a single precious moment
On things that brings sorrow to the heart
Always use each day to fashion
Into a lovely work of art.

Today comes only once, my friend
Remember it will never return
Think, and use it wisely while you can
So many important lessons yet to learn.

Never worry, enjoy this beautiful day
Forget frustrations, let them slip away
Fill this day with happiness and love
Thank God for all blessings from above.
